Our history

On the fatherâ€™s side, our family is from the Celtic Scottish-Welsh area.

For many generations it dedicated itself to stone and marble work in these areas;

my father was the last one, whatâ€™s more, he laid the stone foundations for our House in 1952.

My motherâ€™s origins go back to Germany, in the Saxe area and have boasted of a family hotel tradition in these places for more than a century.

Today, we still commit ourselves to satisfy all our regular and new customers who choose to spend their summer and winter holidays on the plateau of Folgaria.
